

Sudhakantha Dr. Bhupen Hazarika

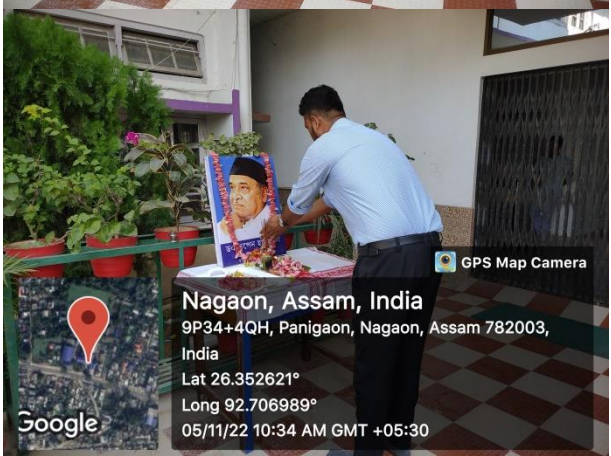

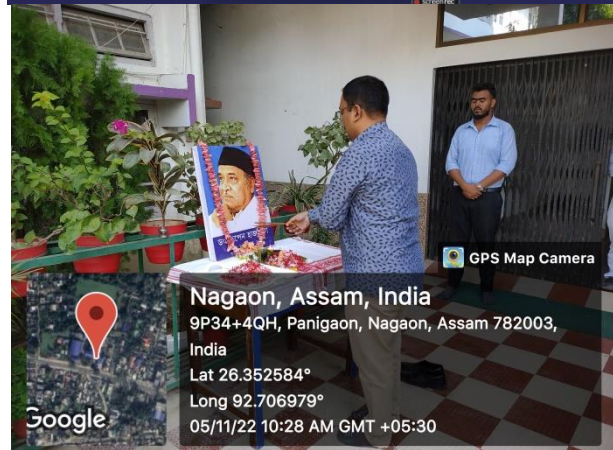

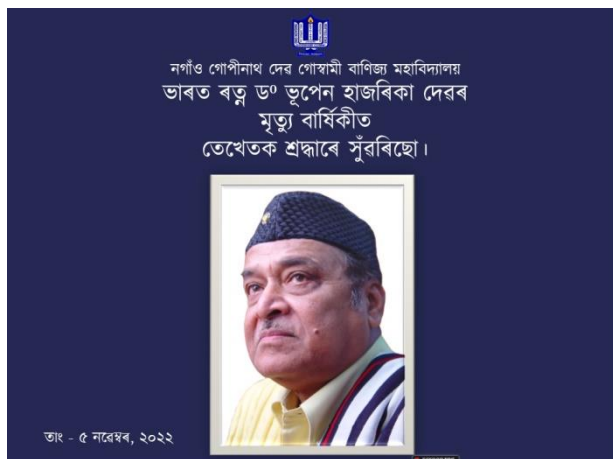

Remembered on his Death Anniversary

Nagaon GNDG Commerce College

Today on 05th Nov, 2022 the college remembered Dr. Bhupen Hazarika on his Death Anniversary. He was an esteemed music artist of the country and a Bharat Ratna recipient. On 5th November, 2011 he passed away at Kokilaben Dhirubhai Ambani Hospital in Mumbai due to old age ailments at the age of 85.

In the morning today at 10:00 am the college Students' Union Body organised a programme to pay homage to our beloved Sudhakantha and remembered him and his works. Later a programme was organised at the mini auditorium of the college to pay tribute to late Dr. Bhupen Hazarika. In his speech the principal of the college Dr. Mriganka Saikia acclaimed the achievements and contribution of late Dr. Bhupen Hazarika to the music world of not only of Assam but also of the nation. He also mentioned the gap created by his departure in the domain of music. Other college staff members and students also highlighted late Dr. Bhupen Hazarika's life accomplishments. Later a singing competition based on songs of Dr. Bhupen Hazarika was also organised, in which the students of the college took participation.

We all pray for the soul of Dr. Bhupen Hazarika to rest in peace.
