ORGANIZED BY
NAGAON DISTRICT ADMINISTRATION

The District Administration, Nagaon, organized a solemn and dignified programme on 10th December, 2025 to observe Swahid Divas 2025, paying heartfelt tribute to the martyrs who sacrificed their lives during the Assam Movement of 1980. The commemorative event, held at Nehrubali field, Nagaon, began at 11:00 A.M. and witnessed the enthusiastic participation of students and faculty from various educational institutions across the district, including Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College. In a stirring display of unity and respect, nearly 5,000 students from different institutions joined in a grand chorus rendition of Dr. Bhupen Hazarika's evergreen patriotic song "Swahid Pronamu Tumak." The performance was further elevated by the collective involvement of officials and staff of the Nagaon District Administration, led by the District Commissioner, along with Principals and faculty members from institutions across the district.

As part of the day-long observance, the evening segment of the programme brought a serene and reflective atmosphere to the campus. Traditional Bonti Prajalon (earthen lamp lighting) was carried out, symbolizing the eternal flame of sacrifice and remembrance. The programme concluded with the Principal, staff, and students lighting 50 earthen lamps, paying a moving tribute to the martyrs of the Assam Movement.
