

OBSERVANCE OF SOK DIVAS
AT NAGAON G.N.D.G. COMMERCE COLLEGE

Nagaon G.N.D.G. Commerce College solemnly observed SOK Divas on August 16, 2026, to pay homage to the innocent lives lost in the tragic bomb blast at Dhemaji during the Independence Day celebrations in 2004. The programme commenced with an address by Mr. Ram Prasad Patar, Assistant Professor, Department of Finance, who highlighted the significance of observing SOK Divas every year on August 16. He recalled the tragic incident at Dhemaji and emphasised the need to remember the innocent children and individuals who lost their lives in the blast. As a mark of respect to the departed souls, the National Flag was flown at half-mast, followed by a one-minute silence observed by all those present. A solemn pledge was subsequently administered to the teaching and non-teaching staff, NCC cadets and students of the college. The participants pledged to stand united against all forms of terrorism and militant violence, work towards peace and harmony in the state, and raise their voices against all forms of violence. The observance concluded with a renewed commitment to uphold peace, unity and communal harmony and to remember the victims of violence with dignity and respect.
